- Constitution Committee has completed their review of the Senate Constitution and are drafting a revised document to present to the Senate members after the New Year.

Chair's Report:

- Chair Berglee asked the members if the Senate should constitute a panel to review faculty issues with the bookstore. After discussion, Senator Chatham moved to refer the bookstore issue to an Ad-hoc committee of three faculty to be selected by the chair. Senator Irons seconded the motion. Motion passed.

Senate Actions:

Governance:

- The Governance committee recommended Wayne Willis to replace Robert Boram, At-Large member, who resigned from the University Promotion Committee. Recommendation approved.
- The Governance committee recommended Tom Kmetz to replace Clara Potter (who retired from the University) as Library representative on the Faculty Rights and Responsibilities Committee. Recommendation approved.
- The Governance committee brought the following changes to the General Education Council Committee Description for a first reading: to allow the Faculty Senate Chair-elect to be a voting member; and add the Dean of Library Services or his or her designee as a voting member (requested by the Dean of Library Services). After discussion, Senator Irons moved to suspend the rules and go to a second reading. Senator Macintosh seconded the motion. Motion passed. Senator Irons moved to approve the General Education Council Committee Description as revised. Senator Baker seconded the motion. Motion passed.
- The Governance committee brought the Teacher Education Council (TEC) Committee Description for a second reading. One revision was made since the first reading: Line 78, Chair (or his or her designee) of the Faculty Senate. Chair Berglee asked for questions or discussion. There was no discussion. The Teacher Education Council (TEC) Committee Description passed as revised.

Fiscal Affairs:

- The Fiscal Affairs committee brought forth a Resolution "that the Morehead State University Faculty Senate welcomes the commitment to shared governance expressed by the President, and is committed to active, timely, and substantial involvement in the decision-making process" for a first reading.

Academic Policies:

- Senator Irons presented a Proposal from the Academic Policies Committee regarding general education requirements for Associate Degree Programs for a second reading. Senator Irons provided details of the proposal. A question and answer session followed. Senator Rathbun expressed a concern that if KCTCS reduces the number of hours required for an Associate Degree in Respiratory Care, will Morehead State then be requiring more hours for an Associate Degree in Respiratory Care than KCTCS and how the change would affect accreditation for programs. The Provost stated that exceptions for accreditation requirements will always be supported. The proposal was approved.

New Business:

- There was discussion about a forum for written communication between Senators and faculty.

Adjournment: 5:20 pm
